MARGAUX

The SWAN 65 is one of the best known designs by Sparkman & Stephens and a legend. This is hull number 8 of a total of 42 of these fine boats built over a 17-year period, which became famous after the Swan 65 SAYULA's victory in the Whitbread Round the World Race in 1973. These yachts are known for their superior hull strength, control in any sea state, sea kindly sailing characteristics and fine turns of speed, the Swan 65 is a timeless classic.

MARGAUX was comprehensively refitted between 2011/12 in Germany and upgraded with new teakdeck, new electrics, new lighting system, new plumbing, new electric toilets, air-condition in all cabins and salon, new generator, new dish washer, new washing machine, new dinghi, etc. etc. She is ready to sail in top condition and her professional German crew is looking forward to pamper her charter guests.
